

Thank you to all who attended the 2011 conference, we had over 200 delegates which included 66 oral presenters and 60 poster presenters. Awards were given to the below:

In association with St. Lukes institute of Cancer Research Best Student Poster:
Soniya Sivaji

In association with St. Lukes institute of Cancer Research Best Poster
Sheila Cahalane,
St. Vincent's University Hospital
Development of an Integrated Care Pathway (ICP) document for Cataract Day Surgery

In association with St. Lukes institute of Cancer Research Best Oncology Presentation
Suzanne Denieffe
Waterford Insitute of Technology
Presence of Symptoms and Quality of Life in Women awaiting Breast Cancer Surgery

In association with St. Lukes institute of Cancer Research Best First Time Presenter
Timmy Frawley
Cluain Mhuire Community Mental Health Service
Standards Based Audit Of A Community Based Acute Day Hospital

In association with St. Lukes institute of Cancer Research Innovative & Ground Breaking Award

Morag Mitchell
NHS UK
Does the wearing of tabards during drug rounds reduce the number of interruptions?

Virginia P. Krebbeks
Wegmans School of Nursing, St. John Fisher College
DNP Nurse-managed Hepatitis C Clinic in a Rural Area"

Dympna Devenney
Children's University Hospital
Ongoing improvements in glycaemic control in children and adolescents using CSII

2 awards In Association with Chiesi - first & second place

2nd Place Neonatal

Maryanne Murphy
Trinity College Dublin

Medication Administration Practices of Children's Nurses

1st Place Neonatal

Nora Scott
The Children's Hospital, Denver, Colorado

Universal MRSA Screening Results in Sustainable Eradication of Hospital-Associated MRSA in the NICU

Nutricia Award

To attend the EWMA conference the best PG Dip in Wound Management Student

The winner was: Tara Coughlan

Pfizer Award:

Bursary to undertake an MSc in Neonatal Nursing

The winner was Ann Kelly McEntaggart

RCSI Award

Research Bursary to undertake an MSc Nursing

The winner was Emer Shanley